Novel Extradition Is Asked Again

BATON ROUGE, May 23 (AP)—New extradition papers have been sent from Baton Rouge to Columbus, Ohio, for Gordon Novel, wanted in the Kennedy assassination probe in New Orleans.

Efforts to reach Novel, who reported he was shot at and wounded by flying glass at Nashville Sunday, were unsuccessful.

William Redmann, executive counsel to the Governor, said today the papers were sent to Columbus Monday after receipt from Orleans Parish District Attorney Jim Garrison.

The new move to extradite the former New Orleans bar operator came almost a month after Gov. James Rhodes of Ohio sent back the papers and asked for technical corrections.
